The Plaintiff submits this Case Management Statement and request that the Court adopt the Statement in issuing its Case Management Order.

DESCRIPTION OF THE CASE

1. A brief description of the events underlying the action:

Plaintiff, Carlos Marin alleges that he was employed by Defendant Eschone Electric an electrical company and Defendant Yoel Hanegbi, as an apprentice electrician. Mr. Marin claims that during his employment Mr. Hanegbi did not pay for travel time. Mr. Hanegbi required that Mr. Marin arrive at his shop in the morning then drive to the job site. Eschone and Mr. Hanegbi only recorded and paid Mr. Marin for time he was at the job site.

1 Additionally Mr. Hanegbi shorted Mr. Marin his overtime hours. For example Exhibit A
 2 is a copy of Mr. Marin's Time Card for the period 10/16/06 through 10/31/06. The time card
 3 shows that Mr. Marin worked a total of 96 regular hours, 20.78 over time hours and .5 double
 4 time hours. Based upon a rate of $15.00 per hour Mr. Hanegbi owes Mr. Marin $1922.55. The
 5 pay stub for that time peiod shows that Mr. Hanegbi paid Mr. Marin for $1873.65 for 106.91
 6 regular hours and 12 hours of overtime. Ex. B Pay Stub Thus Mr. Hanegbi owes Mr. Marin
 7 $49.50. Ex C Exel Spreadsheet Thus this case may be humble but it is not as Mr. Hanegbi as 8 implied in his previous correspondence and in his small claims court claim, frivolous.

9 Plaintiffs' complaint alleges violations of California Labor Code section 510, violation of 10 the Fair Labor Standards Act, 29 U.S.C. § 201 et seq., f and violation of California Business and 11 Professions Code section 17203.

12 In a way of response, defendants counter-claim against plaintiff in small claims court for 13 "filing a false law suit against" him.

14 This case has been made more difficult by the Defendant Yoel Hanegbi. For example, I
 15 spoke to Mr. Hanegbi tonight 12/5/07 at approximately 6:10 pm., in order to discuss the Case
 16 Management Conference Statement. I informed of the nature of the Plaintiff's law suit. Mr.
 17 Hanegbi replied by shouting into the phone "James Dal Bon you are a loser attorney." Mr.
 18 Hanegbi hung up the phone. Ex. E Dec James Dal Bon

19 Approximately two weeks ago Mr. Hanegbi sued our client in small claims court for 20 "filing a false law suit". Mr. Hanegbi contacted my client on Monday, December 3, 2007 at 21 about 4:27 pm. On Tuesday December 2, 2007 the Plaintiff Carlos Marin returned Mr.
 22 Hanegbi's call. Mr. Hanegbi, in a loud raised voice, informed Mr. Marin that he had to appear in 23 court on Friday and that Mr. Marin has to dismiss the case. Mr. Hanegbi told Mr. Marin in a
 24 raised loud voice that he would not dismiss his law suit against Mr. Marin. Ex. E Dec. Carlos
 25 Marin

2. The principal factual issues which the parties dispute:

(a) Whether Plaintiff's Counsel will file an anti slap law suit against Mr. Hanegbi

1 (b) Whether the plaintiff was paid for travel time;

2 (c) The total amount Mr. Hanegbi shorted Mr. Marin in overtime.

3 3. The principal legal issues which the parties dispute:

4 Plaintiff can not comment until Mr. Hanegbi discusses the case with him.

5 4. The other factual issues which remain unresolved

6 Plaintiff can not comment until Mr. Hanegbi discusses the case with him.5. The 7 parties which have not been served and why
